

PRESS RELEASE

SYVDOH

SYVDOH is the brainchild of former Sea Kings Brian Canning and Ralph Hector (BBC 6Music, Radio Scotland, Louder Than War, Vive Le Rock) who've collaborated, written and produced Syvdoh I & II between Glasgow and Monmouth in South Wales.

SYVDOH I (IFR017)

Sandyhills Young Venny Disciples Of Hate were a gang of 80's hoodlums who spread fear into the heart of their community but also had delusions of grandeur what with their high faluting name and all. Step back in time and into their domain and hear about the myths and legends of a once great but now sadly forgotten gang now re-imagined in song. Immerse yourself in their drama, their self-destruction and their gallows humour. Part I is a collection of romanced vignettes backed by sonic loops and beautiful pianos reminiscent of Aiden Moffat & Bill Wells. Let the black iron gargoye eat our your soul.

SYVDOH II (IFR027)

Syvdoh II is pop sounds mixed with political and social comment. Shades of the big guns run throughout; Bowie, Prince and Springsteen, but with a more contemporary twist of Sleaford Mods meeting Field Music. Syvdoh II is packed to the rafters with big concepts; gang culture, heaven, death, mental health, Leveson, the press, the void, mind control, serial killers, homophobia, death camps, slave ships, psychics, Hiroshima... so in short a right barrel of laughs. There is a selection of guest appearances, notably the author Denise Mina (Winner of the 2017 McIlvanney Prize for Scottish Crime Book of the Year). It's dark in there, but the pop sounds bring the light.
